Club Details

Club	Information
Christian Union	A friendly, open group for all years with snack, games and discussions; exploring the Christian faith and life's big questions.
Chess Club
Creative Writing Club	Using writing prompts and pictures to create stories, poems and playscripts.
Debating Club	You can take part in weekly debates or just come and watch. The topic of the debate will be released the day before.
Sign Language Club	Learn the basics of sign language to sign with your deaf friends
Y7 French Club	Help with grammar and some games
French Translation Club	This is a really exciting opportunity to have your French work read by professors at The Queen's College, Oxford University, as part of their Anthea Bell translation competition. We will complete practice translations together and learn how to be creative with translation before attempting the competition material. The best entries for each year group will be sent off to the university in a bid to win a certificate for 'best translation in the North of England'!
